Student Life

As we move forward we see all our plans coming together, and coming to an end. Many of us strive at Yale High School to become something special. Each YHS student is unique in many ways. Whether it's with clubs, sports or academics, we all have something lying ahead. Moving ahead is something each of us has to overcome at some point in our lives. Live every moment as you can while here at Yale High School, because sooner or later your time here will end. It will be time to move on and pursue your dreams and goals.

It's your time to move...forward...

Homecoming Game

Move Towards Victory!

The Bulldogs went into the Homecoming game against Cros-Lex with a record of 5-1 and hopes of making the playoffs and a piece of the league title. The Bulldogs moved into the playoffs and closer to a league championship with their 22 to 20 victory over the Pioneers. The Bulldogs 22 points in the first half had the crowd thinking it was going to be a blowout. However, Cros-Lex tried to move in on an upset; but the Bulldogs stopped them in their tracks. The Bulldogs win put them at 6-1 overall, qualified them for the playoffs, and moved them a little bit closer to a piece of the league title.

Trevor Harris stops Cros-Lex's running back for a loss. Dan McQuat and Alex Stegeman look on.

Kris Sutherland stuffs the Cros-Lex receiver after the catch.

Adam Pilarski pounds the rock while the offensive line creates a hole. Austen Harris also makes a great block to create room for Pilarski to run.

Left: Josh Kotranza and Austen Harris lead the rest of the Bulldogs onto the field before the game. You'd better watch out 'cause here come the Bulldogs getting pumped up before the big game against the Cros-Lex Pioneers.

Below: Jordan Locke catches a pass in the endzone for an extra point.

Left: Zach Long drives the ball down the field for a first down. Long used his speed to get to the outside and turn it up.

Senior Class Officers Of 2008

Muray Darling
President

This is no where near the end. It is nearly the beginning. Graduation is only symbolizing a new chapter in our lives.

We should all be extremely proud of our accomplishments. Yale has brought so much to the class of 2008. We have made friends and lost some. Whether they are life long relationships or people you will never see after graduation, do not forget all of the great memories with them. Never forget the bond you had with your classmates.

Some of us will leave and never see this community again, others will stay and raise a family where they grew up. Either way, live your life to it's fullest potential and let nothing hold you back.

Congratulations Class of 2008. May your dreams come true and good luck with your future!

"In one short year we will be graduates. Now is the time to work hard toward your goals. More importantly, it is the time to have fun and make memories that will last long after we leave high school. I wish the best of luck to all members of the Class of 2009 as we near the end of our time here at Yale."

Stay in Motion

The 2007-2008 athletic teams have had a great year so far. The Girls Varsity Volleyball team was a league champ, and the Boys Varsity Football team had a great record of 8-1 making it into the playoffs for the first time in years. The Guys and Girls Basketball teams had a great season with winning records. The Cross Country teams put up a tough battle with league opponents, while the Boys Tennis team had another good year. The Yale Cheerleaders continue doing a great job supporting all of the sports. We look forward to the upcoming spring sports season.

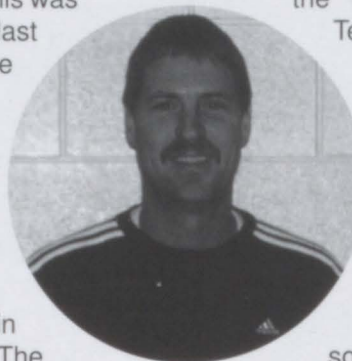

Above: Freshmen Travis Terpening runs the ball passed the defenders and into the endzone for a touchdown. ●●●

MOVING FAST

The Football team achieves its goals

The 2007 Varsity football season exceeded expectations. The Bulldogs turned there record completely around by going 8 and 1 in the regular season. This was a big turnaround from last years 1 and 8 season. The Bulldogs placed second in the league with a league record of 6 and 1. The Bulldogs only loss came to unbeaten League Champs Almont in week 2. The Bulldogs broke several school records in their outstanding season. The team had 8 wins in the regular season for the first time since the 1950's. They also had the most shutouts in a season by any team in school history with 4. This great season also helped

Coach Smeznik get his fiftieth career victory. Along with all of these great wins, the Bulldogs had five players named to the BWAC All-Conference 1st Team and two to the BWAC All-Conference Honorable Mention. The Bulldogs had a phenominal year even though it ended in a week 10 playoff loss to a very good Flint Powers Catholic squad. The Varsity team wasn't the only football team doing some damage out on the field.

The Junior varsity team went 6 - 3, while the Freshmen were 5 - 3 - 1. Overall, this was a very dominating year for all the football teams and hopefully there will be many more to come.

“THE 2007 VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM HAD AN OUTSTANDING SEASON. A RECORD TYING 8 WINS IN A SEASON DUE TO A DEFENSE THAT ALLOWED ONLY 70 POINTS IN REGULAR SEASON PLAY AND AN OFFENSE THAT CONTROLLED THE BALL. THE OVERTIME WIN AGAINST RICHMOND WAS NOT ONLY EXCITING BUT WAS A STATEMENT GAME THAT CARRIED US THROUGH THE SEASON. THIS TEAM CONSISTED OF GREAT TEAM LEADERSHIP, TEAM CHEMISTRY AND THE WILL TO NEVER GIVE UP. IT WAS A GREAT GROUP OF YOUNG MEN TO COACH AND A TEAM THAT WILL BE REMEMBERED FOR A LONG TIME.”

This years cross country teams had an outstanding season. The boys placed second in the conference, trailing Cros-Lex by just one point. The boys had a very consistent year and enjoyed many successes, winning both the Akron Fairgrove meet and the Almont BWAC. They took second at Port Huron, Algonac, and the Yale BWAC. While falling short of their dream to go to states, the boys had a great season and look forward to more success in the future.

This year the girls team also had a good season, despite losing many valuable senior runners last year. Next year, Yale's girls team will be a force to reckon with as they will lose only one varsity runner and returning runners will be imbued with more experience and training to further Yale's chances of once again winning the BWAC as they did years ago. Despite their young varsity squad, the girls team still presented a formidable opponent this season.

MOVIN' FOR THE DIG

Yale Volleyball strives to be the best

The Yale Varsity Volleyball Team finished their season with another successful year. They won the BWAC title for the second consecutive year. The Varsity Team clenched the league title by defeating the Richmond Blue Devils. Despite their loss to the Armada Tigers, they still came out victorious in their conference. The Varsity Bulldogs continued their streak when they went to Imlay City High School for districts. Unfortunately, the Young Varsity Team could not overpower the strong ability of the Caro Tigers Volleyball Team.

The Varsity Team, also showed their perseverance to first year coach, Stacey Atkins. The Junior Varsity and the Freshman Volleyball team had a glorious season. Junior Varsity finished their season with outstanding effort. The Junior Varsity coach is Kerry Dykstra. The Freshman team had a routine season. The Freshman are coached by Sara Kohler. Both teams proved to the other Blue Water Area Conference Teams that they are the real deal. Congratulations to all the Volleyball Teams and their great seasons!

The Basketball Team Moves up in the League

The Boys Basketball team was coming off a very tough year after recording only two wins in the entire season. Although this year was destined to be different because of great dedication over the summer, a very hungry returning group of players, and most of all some great senior leadership. In Coach Dykstra's second year as head coach, he also plans on trying to turn this program around. The players and coaches are really looking to gain a lot of respect this year and try to establish some tradition for Bulldog Basketball. The season started off pretty rough for the bulldogs as they went on a little losing streak against some pretty tough pre-season competition. They had a great defensive game against one of the best teams in the area, Brown City. The Bulldogs got their first victory against Caro in the Christmas Tournament, where they lost in the finals to a very good Ubyly team by two. However, the Bulldogs have rallied off four league wins and are tied for third in the BWAC. The first half of the schedule has just come to an end and the Bulldogs are playing great right now. If they keep playing the way they are, they have a great chance at taking the league championship home for the first time in a long time.

“THIS YEAR’S TEAM, ESPECIALLY THE SENIORS, EMBODIES WHAT THE YALE BOYS BASKETBALL PROGRAM IS ALL ABOUT. THESE SENIORS HAVE DEFINATELY LEFT THEIR LEGACY ON OUR PROGRAM AND WILL BE MISSED!”

Business Professionals Of America

Business Professionals Of America or BPA is an individual or team club. Each person or group of people start out at the regional level which is held at Baker College in Port Huron. Members compete in areas such as Excel, Powerpoint, medical terminology, desktop publishing, website design, and much more. If students qualify at the regional level they are then able to compete at the State level, which is held in a different place each year. This year students were able to go to Grand Rapids.

Colorgaurd, is a club that many people enjoy. Its a dedication like all of the other oraginizations and clubs, but Colorgaurd, is a fun and entertaining way to support the Yale Football Team. Colorguard members attend all home football games and help the cheerleaders with their victory cheer routines.

Drum Majors

Lauren Schmidt and Jonathan Polan

Drum Majors Lauren Schmidt and Jonathan Polan led Yale High School's Marching Band through a fun and exciting season. Having attended a Drum major Camp, the ultimate in geekdom, they learned new techniques and marching styles which the band and themselves showed off. With new mace routines every game, choreographed by Jon and shut down by Lauren, every game was a new experience. The pep and sound emanating from the stands, along with a new addition of "the wave" (thanks cheerleaders!) brought the band and the crowd together. The football team did well also. Through hardships and nasty tantrums on both sides, Jon and Lauren had a fantastic time being Yale's drum majors, and their friendship and personal lives have grown as a result.

Expanding Your Horizons From Plays to Quiz Bowl

Just Ducky: The day starts off peacefully for Courtney Maxwell and Elizabeth Smith. Mr. Maxwell has just been chosen as the new Chairman of the Citizen's Committee. But the girls decide to write a letter to Vester Blayne, a columnist at the local newspaper. They fill the letter with a made-up tale of heartache. While the girls wait for the paper, Mrs. Blayne calls Mr. Maxwell and tells her about Courtney's crushing love life. When the chairman and a local newspaper reporter shows up to interview Mr. Maxwell about his new position, miscommunications and mistaken identities abound, and Courtney believes that she is going to be arrested. So what now? Claim insanity. Courtney even attempts to prove that insanity runs in the Maxwell family. All ends well, but not before a measure of laughter.

Austen and Trevor we were blessed twice on the day you were both born. Words could never express our joy then and how truly proud we are of you now. You have become such fine young men and true role models for others and your sister Jenna. You have many talents and interests, so may your next journey of life be prosperous and fulfilling. May you always remember that no matter how old you are you will always have your loving family behind you, and no matter what you chose in life, or what you come up against, you have both your faith and family. May the memories we have together remain with both of you always and know that your dad, Jenna and I hang on to every moment we have shared with you and look forward to many, many more.....
We Love You Both Very Much!!! May every one of your dreams come true.

Thank you for being such a wonderful daughter! You've given so many memories that we'll forever cherish.

"Who needs a little KFC?" a big three pointer, a clutch hit, or your gift to help others with homework even though they're in college!

Both the biggest memory will always be how much love you've brought to your family.

Brianna you're so beautiful, bright, talented, and determined; success is behind you, with you, and ahead of you.

We Love You!

Mom, Dad & Nibbins

Justin,
Time spent with you is always a blessing,
And the years have gone by so fast-
Our baby Bear is ready to use her beautiful wings,
To explore the world at last.

We believe you will succeed at all of life's challenges,
As they will sometimes come your way-
Words cannot express how proud you have made us,
As you approach Graduation Day.

May Angels always look after you,
And keep you safe and sound-
Guide you in the right direction,
When Dad, Mom and Holly are not around.

Get ready, start flight
Go and conquer the world-
But always remember, no matter how far,
You'll always be our baby girl!

We love you...

You are the greatest blessing God could have given us. We could not be more proud of all you have become. Keep your vision and follow your dreams. You will make a difference in the world.

All of our love,

It was a landmark event, as you crossed the stage, wearing your square-shaped mortarboard, accepting your diploma. We were exalted in your accomplishments, full of pride and jubilation.

Honored to be your parents and proud that you are our son.

You have reached a milestone. A new era of understanding has begun between us. Now, is the time to establish an adult relationship. We will be abdicating our roles as parents and becoming partners.

You are no less than the stars and the moon. You bring such joy to our lives. We are better people because of you. You are loved and cherished. The song we sing so often may help to express how we feel.

YOU ARE OUR SUNSHINE
OUR ONLY SUNSHINE
YOU MAKE US HAPPY
WHEN THE SKIES ARE GRAY
YOU'LL NEVER KNOW DEAR
HOW MUCH WE LOVE YOU...

If you can imagine it, you can achieve it. All your dreams can come true if you have the courage to pursue them. Wherever you go in life, go with all your heart.

CONGRATULATIONS

From mud puddles, to well bigger mud puddles
We haven't seemed to grow out of getting dirty.
But we have grown out of the week long fights over silly little things.

You'll always be my little sister,
And I'll always be your overprotective big sister.
We may both go our separate ways someday
But we'll always know who we can call in the middle of the night
With something that seemed so important at the time but really isn't I'm proud of you and I'm glad I can call you my sister.

Love you Spickett,
Linz

Melissa,

You have worked so hard to get here. We have loved and enjoyed watching you grow to become a beautiful young woman. Remember that life is a journey and to enjoy it. Laugh often and follow your dreams. We are proud of you.

AUTUMN STAWECKI

Baby Girl this is hard to write knowing this is a farewell sending you off to college. Since the day you were born you have been such an amazing daughter, you've given us so much joy. You've gone from our "Little Princess" to our "Big Girl" in the blink of an eye but in between you've given us so many wonderful memories. Autumn, you've always been such a loving & good hearted person. We know that as you continue along life's path your confidence and faith will always bless which ever road you take, and we want you to know wherever that road takes you, we'll always be here for you. So as you set off we have a wish for you...

that your life is always full of the people you love that your dreams are realized to their full potential that your heart finds its way to your soul mate that your eyes see all the things you wish to see that your feet lead you down the right roads that your hands make the world a better place that your arms embrace all the world has to offer that your mind always continues learning and your eyes always see just how much we love you!

Love, Mom & Dad

Autumn,

You are such an amazing sister and person. I wish you didn't have to go but I realize that you have to pursue your dreams, which is something I admire so much about you. When you put your mind to something you don't stop until you've reached your goal. I know we've had our fights but I couldn't imagine life without such a wonderful sister. You've taught me so much, from knowing how to throw a softball to how to love one another. I thank God for giving me such a great sister but most important such a great friend! I hope that someday I can be at least half the person you are. I love you Autumn.

Love, T-Bird

Corey,

You have such a strong character and quick wit.

You can always find the humor in any situation.
You set your goals and strive to achieve them.

You'll accomplish
everything you set out to do in life.

We're so proud of you.
Always look ahead.

The 2008 yearbook staff worked hard to create a memorable high school yearbook. With the theme "Move...", many dedicated students put out countless hours of time and energy in order to meet every deadline. The yearbook was printed by Herff Jones Yearbook Company in Edwardsville, Kansas with a run of 420 copies. This year's book was created using Adobe InDesign CS2. All pictures were digital and formatted with Corel Draw and Adobe Photoshop.

Our deepest gratitude goes out to all of our administrators, faculty members, and staff for their support and cooperation during the school year.

A very special thanks to all of our sponsors and advertisers whose funding makes the production of the yearbook possible.
